

Article VI, Section 5. [Who is eligible as a legislator.]

(1) A person is not eligible to the office of senator or representative unless the person is:

- (a) a citizen of the United States;
- (b) at least twenty-five years of age;
- (c) a qualified voter in the district from which the person is chosen;
- (d) a resident of the state for three consecutive years immediately prior to:
 - (i) the last date provided by statute for filing for the office, for a person seeking election to the office; or
 - (ii) the person's appointment to the office, for a person appointed to fill a mid-term vacancy; and

(e) (i) a resident of the district from which the person is elected for six consecutive months immediately prior to the last date provided by statute for filing for the office; or

(ii) a resident of the district for which the person is appointed to fill a mid-term vacancy for six consecutive months immediately prior to the person's appointment.

(2) A person elected or appointed to the office of senator or representative may not continue to serve in that office after ceasing to be a resident of the district from which elected or for which appointed.
